

agnès b. Homme été '20 23

For Summer 2023, agnès b. presented her men's collection through four major themes dear to the designer: In the Street, Parisian Elegance, Workwear and Paris Rock 'n' Roll.

The 'Street' looks in the collection are inspired by the photos and artistic eye of agnès. The «rain photo» jacket and the «Walls Talk» printed jacket, developed in fluid and comfortable fabrics such as cotton jersey, fleece and technical nylon.

Parisian Elegance can be found in a selection of light-colored outfits with a reinterpreted safari jacket in beige or green flecked linen and a new raincoat in linen-cotton.

Agnès has always loved the Bolo tie, a very masculine signature, that is worn tightly around the neck. As always, several shirts in exclusive prints, more graphic this summer. The suit, another essential of the agnès b. men's wardrobe, is present in this collection in linen, striped cotton, and comfortable cotton jersey.

No agnès b. collection is complete without workwear! The designer had fun reworking this emblematic piece by dipping it in a dye bath for a tie-dye effect in orange and grey tones.

New this season is a shirt with lace-up pockets created by agnès for this collection.

Agnès has always loved and dressed the rock 'n' roll world. Jacquard knitwear, red roses prints and the return of the Perfecto, this time in jersey for more comfort. A nod to Gainsbourg with the striped double-breasted jacket, the casual shirt, and the thin leather tie. Elegant silhouettes that are always rocking.
